

COMMERCE RESEARCH CENTRE

Shri Shiv Chhatrapati College is the first college in Junnar Taluka to uplift the downtrodden, backward, tribal and weaker section of Junnar Block through higher education. To empower the illiterate, ignorant, uneducated masses by educating them and by creating in them social, political and cultural awareness. To give them confidence that they are the creators and not the creatures of their fate. To make them think that knowledge alone can help them in creating their future. The Department of Commerce was established in the year 1970. It has a long history in shaping the commercial and business environment in and around Pune district. Many students are working in reputed Companies, Government Department and Non-Government organisation.

Commerce Research Centre was started in the year 2006. Three Research Guides are associated with Commerce Research Centre at present. So far, twenty-two students have been awarded Ph.D. degree by Savitribai Phule Pune University. Eight Foreign Students completed their Research work for Ph. D. in our Research Centre.

Three Major and 6 Minor Research Projects have been completed by the faculty members. A number of research papers have been published in national and international research journals and seminar proceedings, some of these research papers have also appeared in Journals with high impact factor. Research guides of the Centre have also written academic and text books.
