

59	INDIAN INSTITUTIONS ROLE IN DEVELOPING ENTREPRENEURSHIP IN INDIA Dr. Smt. Vidya M. Jirage	279-284
60	A study of innovative methods of promotion for smaller enterprises Dr. Vinita Nawalakha	285-286
61	Indian Financial Services in the Process of Globalization Dr. Samadhan K. Patil	287-290
62	"GST IN INDIA" Prof. Ramdas K. Gadge	291-294
63	A STUDY OF ROLE OF PUBLIC-PRIVATE PARTNERSHIP IN INFRASTRUCTURE DEVELOPMENT IN INDIA LAVAKUSH SINGH	295-303
64	Innovative Strategies, Advances and Challenges in Commerce and Management. Surojit Saha	304-310
65	"A Study of Cybercrime & IT'S Preventions" Prof. Sonali Kamble	311-312
66	Leadership Development and Character Dr. D.V.Ujagare	313-316
67	Impact of changes in Income tax rules on investment in Mutual funds. Prof. Shephalika Gokhale	317-319
68	Pre GST and Post GST government policies related to agricultural sector Anil Khanse	320-322
69	BUSINESS RESTRUCTURING IN PR FRUITS TRADERS Dr. B.Jayanthi, Dr.R.Suganya,	323-325
70	IMPACT OF GST ON REAL ESTATE WITH REFERENCE TO TAMILNADU KA. Vanessa , Dr. M. Nagarenitha	326-330
71	A STUDY ON THE IMPACT OF E-COMMERCE ON CUSTOMER SATISFACTION WITH REFERENCE TO FOUR WHEELER PURCHASE Dr. R. Suganya, Dr. B. Jayanthi,	331-336

Leadership Development and Character

Dr. D.V.Ujagare

Dept. of Commerce & Research Centre
Shri Shiv Chhatrapati College Junnar. Dist Pune 410502

Abstract: Leadership development can build on the development of individuals (including followers) to become leaders. Likewise, it additionally needs to concentrate on the relational linkages between the people in the group. This paper is an endeavor to ponder the Character requires for Leadership Development.

Leadership Development and Character

Leadership is one of the elements of Direction. According to Herold Konntz & Cyril O'Donnel, 'Leadership is influencing people to follow you and to work willingly for the advancement of a common goal'.

Yukl G. defines –

"Leadership is the process whereby one individual influences other group members towards the attainment of defined group or organizational goals."

Robins and Sanghi defined leadership as -

"Leadership can be defined as the ability to influence a group toward the achievement of goal."

Leadership development refers to any activity that enhances the quality of leadership within an individual or organization. Just as people are not all born with the ability or desire to play cricket like Virat Kohli or sing like Lata Mangeshkar, people are not all born with the ability to lead.

Distinctive individual attributes and qualities can help or upset a man's initiative viability and require formalized projects for creating authority skills. However everybody can build up their initiative adequacy. Accomplishing such improvement takes center, practice and diligence more much the same as taking in a melodic instrument than perusing a book. The achievement of administration advancement endeavors has been connected to three factors

- Individual Learners attributes
- The quality and nature of the authority improvement program
- Genuine bolster for behavioral change from the pioneer's administrator

Educating of authority qualities, including correspondence, capacity to propel others, and administration, to a person who might utilize the scholarly abilities in an initiative position. Customarily, administration improvement has concentrated on building up the initiative capacities and states of mind of people. Administration advancement can expand on the improvement of people (counting adherents) to end up pioneers. Likewise, it additionally needs to concentrate on the relational linkages between the people in the group.

Following are the qualities for Character that will build up the Leadership.

1. Honesty: Integrity rouses genuine, genuineness, Purity, Virtue and Fairness. It assembles trust between individuals. A man who reliably talks and acts with Honesty is viewed as dependable.

Word reference offers three meanings of Integrity:

1. Adherence to moral standards; trustworthiness
2. The nature of being whole; soundness
3. Unity; wholeness

Dwight Eisenhower stated: "keeping in mind the end goal to be pioneer a man must have devotees. Also, to have devotees, a man must have their certainty. Henceforth, the incomparable quality for a pioneer is obviously respectability. Without, it no genuine achievement is conceivable, regardless of whether it is on a segment posse, a football field, in armed force, or in an office. The main awesome need is trustworthiness and high reason."

2. Conviction: Conviction appears in a man's confidence, certainty, good faith, eagerness, and enticement. Conviction is one of five imperative ways we show moral duty regarding our demeanor and conduct. Notwithstanding conviction, we additionally demonstrate moral obligation however our trustworthiness, self-control, determination and intelligence.

As indicated by Walter Lippmann "the last trial of a pioneer is that he deserts him in other men the conviction and the will to go ahead".

3. Self-control: Collins English Dictionary characterizes: The demonstration of teaching or energy to train one's own particular emotions, wants, and so forth, esp with the aim of enhancing oneself. Self-control is appeared through deliberateness, promptness, thriftiness and cleverness. Self-restraint rouses individuals to do what they know they ought to would whether they like to or not. It depends on their acknowledgment of individual sensibility for the viewpoints their lives over which they have control.

Wilma Rudolph was living proof that with enough self-discipline, struggles can turn into triumphs. Wilma Glodean Rudolph was born prematurely at 4.5 pounds (2.0 kg), the 20th of 22 siblings from two marriages; her father Ed was a railway porter and her mother Blanche a maid. Rudolph contracted infantile paralysis (caused by the polio virus) at age four. She recovered, but wore a brace on her left leg and foot (which had become twisted as a result) until she was nine. She was required to wear an orthopedic shoe for support of her foot for another two years. Her family travelled regularly from Clarksville, Tennessee, to Meharry Hospital (now Nashville General Hospital at Meharry) in Nashville, Tennessee for treatments for her twisted leg. In addition, by the time she was twelve years old she had also survived bouts of polio and scarlet fever.

In 1952, 12-year-old Rudolph at long last accomplished her fantasy of shedding her cripple and getting to be noticeably similar to other youngsters. Her more seasoned sister was on a b-ball group, and Wilma needed to take after her sister's strides. While in secondary school, Rudolph was on the b-ball group when she was spotted by Tennessee State Olympic style sports mentor Ed Temple. Being found by Temple was a noteworthy break for a youthful competitor. The day he saw the tenth grader out of the blue, he knew he had discovered a characteristic competitor. Rudolph had just increased some track understanding on Burt High School's track group two years previously, for the most part as an approach to keep occupied between ball seasons.

While going to Burt High School, Rudolph turned into a b-ball star setting state records for scoring and driving her group to the state title. She additionally joined Temple's late spring program at Tennessee State and prepared frequently and dashed with his Tiger belles for two years. By the time she was 16, she earned a compartment on the U.S. Olympic style sports group and got back home from the 1956 Melbourne Games with an Olympic bronze award in the 4x100 m hand-off to demonstrate her secondary school schoolmates.

In 1959, Rudolph won a gold decoration in the 4x100 m hand-off at Pan American Games (with Isabelle Daniels, Barbara Jones, and Lucinda Williams) and individual silver in the 100 m. That year she won the AAU 100 m title and guarded it for four sequential years. Amid her profession, she additionally won three AAU indoor titles.

At the 1960 Summer Olympics in Rome she won three Olympic titles: in the 100 m, 200 m and 4x100 m transfer. As the temperature moved toward 110 °F (43 °C), 80,000 observers stuck the Summer Olympic. Rudolph ran the 100-meter dash in a great 11 seconds level. However the time was not credited as a world record, since it was wind-helped. She additionally won the 200-meter dash in 23.2 seconds, another Olympic record. After these wins, she was being hailed all through the world as "the speediest lady ever". At last, on September 11, 1960, she joined with Tennessee State partners Martha Hudson, Lucinda Williams and Barbara Jones to win the 400-meter transfer in 44.5 seconds, setting a world record.[9] Rudolph had an extraordinary, individual motivation to seek after triumph—to pay tribute to Jesse Owens, the observed American competitor who had been her motivation, additionally the star of the 1936 Summer Olympics, held in Berlin, Germany.

Following post-recreations European visit by the American group Rudolph returned home to Clarksville. At her desires, her homecoming parade and meal were the primary completely incorporated city occasions in the city's history.

Steven Covey Said, "On the off chance that I endeavor to utilize human impact procedures and strategies of how to get other individuals to would what I like, to work better, to be more propelled, to like me and each other-while my character is in a general sense defective, set apart by guile or craftiness at that point, over the long haul. I can't be fruitful. Mu deception will breed doubt and all that I do notwithstanding utilizing purported great human relations strategies will be seen as manipulative. It essentially has no effect how great the talk is or even how great the aims are: if there is practically no trust there is no establishment for perpetual achievement. Just essential goodness offers life to strategy."

4. Courage: It motivates definitiveness, imitative, and strength. Fearlessness is the character quality that gives and individual the psychological or good quality to concede fear yet at the same time achieve what is required. Without Courage pioneers won't confront poor choices made by others and will do not have the constancy and perseverance required to work through troublesome issues. They will likewise withdraw despite misfortune and pick the simple course. In any case, in doing as such they just defer the unavoidable.

5. Wisdom: Wisdom motivates point of view, acumen, and attentiveness. Shrewdness implies much more than basically knowing a considerable measure. It is essential mentality that influences each part of life. Wisdom is the character quality with which we grow genuine understanding and presence of mind. Astuteness can be depicted as "Carrying on in ways that show I comprehend the results of my choices".

6. Loyalty and Kindness: Loyalty and consideration are imperative character qualities. Both include activity and additionally states of mind. Steadfastness motivates dutifulness, reliability, strength and duty. An unwavering individual act mindfully. A kind individual works for equity for others. Musings and words are insufficient our life uncovers whether we are genuinely steadfast and kind. Dedication can be depicted as "Reliably obeying may approves and focusing on noteworthy connections". Benevolence motivates kind disposition, empathy, tenderness, liberality and pardoning.

7. Humility: Humility rouses respect, mindfulness, adaptability, compliance and reverence. Lowliness implies regarding others by attracting consideration regarding them rather than myself. Modesty implies having an exact and unassuming mentality toward one's own significance and a solid regard for the significance of others. The two angles are imperative: appropriate regard of self and of others.

8. Diligence: Diligence motivates readiness, circumspection, imagination tirelessness and painstaking quality. It implies enthusiastically finishing the undertakings I have acknowledged. Perseverance is the character quality that drives us to finish what we've started, regardless of what snags we may look simultaneously.

9. Thankfulness: It moves bliss, satisfaction and appreciation. Gratefulness implies genuinely indicating others my appreciation for their impact on my life. It thought processes us to offer thanks to everyone around us. Gratefulness is identified with insightfulness, the procedure through which we recognize the constructive outcome that other individuals have on our lives.

Reference:

1. http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Leadership_development
2. The Leadership Development Handbook, Center for Creative Leadership and Organizational Behavior, 4th ed, by Stephen Robbins, Bruce Millet & Terry Waters-Marsh, published by Prentice Hall.
3. Best Practices in Leadership Development and Organization Change, Best Practice Institute, by Louis L. Carter, Marshall Goldsmith, and David Ulrich by Jossey Bass Pfeiffer.
4. The Leadership Development Guide Australian Leadership Development Centre
5. Dwight Eisenhower, Great Quotes from Great Leaders, ed. Peggy Anderson(Lombard: Great Quotations, 1989)
6. Collins English Dictionary – Complete and Unabridged © HarperCollins Publishers 1991
7. Stephen Covey, The Seven Habits of highly Effective People: Restoring the character Ethic (New York: Simon and Schuster, 1989).
8. iveybusinessjournal.com/topics/leadership/developingleadershipcharacter#.UsfdbvvcH9M
9. http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Wilma_Rudolph
10. Herold Konntz & Cyril O'Donnel : 'Essentials of Management', New Delhi, Tata McGraw-Hill Publishing Co. Ltd., 1978
11. Robins and Sanghi, Organizational Behaviour, Delhi; Pearson Education Inc. 11th Ed., 2005. ISBN: 0131914359; pp.314
12. Greenberg and Baron, Behavior in Organizations, 8th Ed., 2005, pp.471 quoted Yukl, G., Leadership in organization, NJ, Prentice Hall, 5th Ed. 2002